WCRHA REINER

WEST COAST REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION

President's Letter

What an exciting month we had in May! We started out with Affiliate #2, "Rein for the Roses" and concluded the month with Affiliate #3 and #4.

At "Rein for the Roses", Bill Madden and staff made sure everyone was settled in nicely and provided us with continuous evening entertainment and parties. With the regular slate of classes, maturities and derbies to follow, we knew we were in for an exciting week. We were fortunate to have Chris Cook from Inside Reining there to record our show. This will air on July 16th and 23rd, so check it out (details on page 21)! Inside Reining was generously sponsored by Equithrive, Cowtrac, Brookside Equestrian Park and Hanson Performance Horses. The running of the Kentucky Derby created additional excitement as the show

What a fabulous week for a horse show! The Rein for the Roses and WCRHA Affiliate #2 show was another Northern California success!

Our week began with move in and warm-ups on Wednesday. Thursday started the competition with Matt McDowell, riding Wimpys Lil Melody for Bret Christensen, winning the Open and Intermediate Open classes with a 74! Besting the Limited Open was Nev Devine on Peptos Silver Holly for owner Danny Pesusic. Rookie Professional first place went to Joanna Brewer on Nu Chex Bueno Badger owned by Karen Di Napoli and Prime Time Open was again Nev Devine on Peptos Silver Holly. The Brookside Masters Open Jackpot class went to Ted Jacobson riding his SDR Kid Rooster. The ever popular Snaffle/Hackamore class went to Ricky Nicolazzi on Nikky And The Bud, owned by Allyson Hicks.

Our Non-Pro riders saddled up next for the Novice Horse NP Level 1 with a tie for first between Brooke Boyle on Buenos Home Run and Janet Freeland was stopped so everyone could enjoy a mint julep while watching this international event. This had us all in the mood for our Reining Derby which followed the Kentucky Derby. As always, the night concluded with a fabulous BBQ and parade of hats!

Rounding out the month of May was our Affiliate #3 and #4 which hosted our WCRHA "Shootout". What an exciting event! There were 27 competitors vying for the big money and any Non-Pro could compete on any horse for this event. The "Shootout" paid through 10th place and winners walked away with money in hand, jackets, halters, buckles, saddle covers..... Due to our large increase in membership and entries, we decided to add a second show arena. With MEC's help we maintained numerous warm-up arenas, which made this experience fun and pleasurable for everyone. This also gave our members a lot of opportunities to enter extra classes and allowed the show to conclude at a reasonable hour so members could enjoy the evening festivities which included a draw party sponsored by Premier Equine, and a barn social. With over 260 filled stalls and the kind sponsorship from MEC for our "Shootout", this was a week to remember. We will "shoot" to have an even bigger one next year.

We will see you all in July at our Affiliates #5 and #6, which will host the annual Munchman Dog Races, the Open, and the Non Pro 7 and Up Maturity. So get those older horses out and start legging them up!

--Ollie Galligan

Our Youth saddle cleaning fundraiser during the Shootout Show was a big success . Thank you to Farnman for sponsoring the cleaner, oils etc., and to Cady Shaw for being cleaner mentor. Thanks to Hailey Robison youth president for getting all the kids together, and especially to Greachen Ranhoff and Val Schiner and all the kids for helping raise $640!

ROOKIE DAY FUN!

Rookie Day 2013 was held on Saturday, April 20. It was a picture perfect day with the temperature in the low 80's and a slight breeze. Once again WCRHA's Rookie Day was held at Dick Randall's beautiful Lost Trail Ranch (Thank you Dick!). We had our largest group ever with 38 riders, 9 trainers, and 6 volunteers to make this a very memorable event.

The winners of Rookie Day were as follows: In the adult division we had co-champions of Raney Fichtner and Kristen Lowenthal with the reserve buckle going to Emily Helderman. In the Youth division the champion was Kirsten Rodocker and there were co-reserve champions of Grace Bentien and Madeline Benhamou.

In the end we collected $6,900 in entrance fees which was donated directly to the Reining Horse Sports Foundation Crisis Fund.

Thank you goes out to all the exhibiters, trainers and volunteers which made this a great day. We look forward to seeing you at WCRHA's Rookie Day 2014.

Not every attractive pedigree delivers the 'star cross' that is the foundation of every great breeding program, Rhodes River Ranch and their young superstar stallion, Whizkey N Diamonds, delivers on all counts; his $213,549 dollars earned him a truly 'star crossed' pedigree that can deliver on the promise of a bright future for his offspring.

Kim Yancey was honored to receive the award.

Kim Yancey Named NRHA Professional Non Pro Coach of the Year

NRHA recently named WCRHA's own Kim Yancey as their 2012 NRHA Professional Non Pro Coach of the Year.

Kim has been involved with showing horses all of her life. She started showing as a youth in AQHA, NCHA, NRCHA and APHA shows. In AQHA alone, she showed in 11 different events.

She started her horse training career by training horses for her parents Ruby and Leon King at their Loomis, California, ranch. She soon decided to go professional. She continued to train out of her parent's ranch until Kim's husband Pat built her a training facility in Granite Bay, California.

Pat & Kim Yancey

She was at her Granite Bay Ranch for many years until Mike and Barbi Boyle offered her a job. Kim and Pat then moved to Ione, California. She had many wonderful years while at the Boyle Barn.

Kim tells me that she really received a lot of joy from her clients, both youth and Non Pro, when they would get exited seeing their horse learn, improve, and do well in the show pen. She also enjoyed seeing them enjoying showing their own horses, but more importantly, helping them learn to be a better rider and competitor.

She further tells me that she especially enjoyed watching a horse throughout the years. For instance, to be a good open horse for her to show and then to be a good horse for the owner to show, then to go another step and be a good horse for the grandchild to show.

Finally she says "I have had a lot of fun riding wonderful horses, but most of all, I have acquired a lot of great friends. Their smiles when their horses performed well or they learned something new was awesome. We have had many great accomplishments, but trust and friendship is the highest award."

Kim Yancey, Debbie Murnan, and Pat Yancey

Congratulations Kim on being named NRHA's Professional Non Pro Coach for 2012!

THANK YOU VOLUNTEERS

Volunteers are the heart and backbone of the club. Without volunteers, there would not be a WCRHA. From the board members to the parents of the kids that ride. It takes all of us to make our WCRHA shows successful, well run, and fun for everyone. Our shows this year have been all of those things, but it only happens with the help of volunteers! If it wasn't said at the shows, we appreciate the support and thank you for helping.

WCRHA Members at NRBC

WCRHA was well represented at the 2013 National Reining Breeders Classic show, April 15-21, in Katy, Texas. Thischicsamistress (Chocolate Chic Olena x Shiners Mistress), owned by Kelli Brooksby and Derek Brummett, was shown by Brent Loseke to a sixth place finish in the Prime Time Open finals with a score of 220.0. Under the guidance of Mike Boyle, four WCRHA ladies had great showings in the Non Pro divisions. Riding her five-year old gelding, Jac Spook (Smart Spook x Shes a Majestic Whiz), Terry Holland was very excited about placing in the Top Ten in the Prime Time Non Pro division. Vicki Dias and her newly acquired four-year old mare, I Spook (Smart Spook x Setting Off Sparks), brought home a check for placing in the Top 20 in the Prime Time Non Pro finals. Also, placing in the Top 20 in the Prime Time Non Pro finals was Lindy Longfellow on her Wuera Chicgun Step (Colonels Smoking Gun x Foxys Step). Debi Murnan narrowly missed the finals on her six-year old gelding, Chromer Simpson. All in all, congratulations to everyone for their fine showings!

The increasingly popular Shootout classes at Affiliate #4 had many generous sponsors. A big thank you to Murieta Equestrian Center for financial support towards added money and awards. Thank you also to Delbert Tullos, Mike Silva, Gabe Davide, Marni Lopez, and Gordon & Eileen Maxinoski for sponsoring the Champion and Reserve Champion buckles. Let's not forget the four jackets that went to the Champions and Reserve Champions of the Shootout! They were donated by Skyline Gold and Silversmiths. And that beautiful leather wallet presented to the Open Champion was graciously donated by Ricotti Saddle Company. Last but not least, the Mrs. Pastures Horse Cookie treats for our hard working equines were very much appreciated! Special thanks, also, goes to Vetericyn for donating the draw prizes for the 27 Shootout contestants. What fun!

At the Affiliate #5/#6 show in early July, Champion and Reserve Champion trophy buckles for the Open and Non Pro Maturity classes will be sponsored by Trigg McClellan, Lavonne Sturgeon, Dr. Robert Hunter of Hunter Stallion Station, and David & Sherry Oncale of the Rocking 40 Ranch, home of "West Side Rambler."
