Affiliate #2 and Rein for the Roses

The lucky winner of the "Battle for the Saddle" during our Affiliate #2 at Rolling Hills Casino Event Center, was Kain Emmons on Lavonne Sturgeon's California Shines.

After a lot of consistent work and perseverance at Rein for the Roses, Derek Brummett was the Champion across the board showing Thischicsamistress in Intermediate Non-Pro, Limited Non-Pro, Prime Time Non-Pro and Co-Champion in Non-Pro.

Zooooommm!!!
Did you see that!

It's New!!! Spring 2017 is all about NEW! The West Coast Reining Horse Association participated in the NEW Affiliate 2 at the Rolling Hills Casino and Equestrian Event Center in April. What a fabulous facility! Rolling Hills provides outdoor arenas, covered warm up arena and a very large show arena. Even with rain most of the weekend, our horses stayed out of the mud in the barn area. Barns, wash racks, arenas, vendors are centrally located and easy to get to. There are very nice restaurants and hotels at Rolling Hills. Friday Night of the show brought the opportunity to take part in the Rolling Hills Slot Tournament which brought NEW opportunities for our members and the opportunity to win great prices. Our Affiliate 2 included a new Battle for the Saddle Class sponsored by Rolling Hills Casino. Our new and renewing sponsors provided superior awards including chaps from Woods' Western World, hat certificates and custom hat box from Shorty's Caboy Hattery, a custom show pad from Equine Oasis as well as a headstall, reins, skid boots and five gift certificates for $500 each towards a saddle purchase. The Scottsdale Performance Horses/Scottsdale Western World saddle sponsored by Rolling Hills Casino was won by Kain Emmons showing Lavonne Sturgeon's horse California Shines. Terry Skevington and Carol Lawrence our New hosts were fabulous in their hospitality and attention to details during the entire weekend. We even presented a NEW Ranch Riding Class won by Teresa Job. You should have seen the expressions on the reining horses' face as they saw "LOGS!!!" in the center of the arena for the first time after four days of riding reining patterns through the center. It was priceless!

We greatly appreciate our New Awards Volunteer Melinda Gaw who coordinated all the wonderful awards throughout the weekend, and Suzy Bond for helping unload the awards. We thank Mark Faley for opening the back gate for the Judges and Kim Vardanega-Kent and Terry Holland for offering to volunteer. We hope to take you up on the offers at upcoming shows.

We just finished Affililiate #3 at the Brookside Rein for the Roses . Highlights are covered in this newsletter. Everyone appreciated the New Sugar Shack with yummy cappuccinos', espressos, latté, pastries and more every morning. Our gracious host Bill Madden provided NEW sand footing in the Grand Prix and Show Arenas. We come to Brookside for Footing, Food and Fun, and as always Bill hits the mark.

All of our upcoming events are listed on our website www.wcrha.com under the Events Page. I am looking forward to a Great 2017.

Cheers to embracing New Opportunities!!!

Rain Soaked our Boots and Tack but Spirits Ran High at the Rolling Hills Casino Event Center

The WCRHA (West Coast Reining Horse Association) held its second affiliate qualifier at the Rolling Hills Casino in Corning. Even though the weather left a bit to desire, the show was well attended and besides the general NRHA classes we had some fun with a Slot Tournament which was sponsored by the Rolling Hills Casino and a "Battle for the Saddle" class sponsored by the Casino and WCRHA.

California Shines ridden by Kain Emmons scored a 74. With a roll of the dice and additional 9 was added to the score, to win, "The Battle For The Saddle."

A roll of the dice. Ollie Galligan rolled the dice, Martin Padilla was on the podium with the high score. Kain Emmons was next. Emmons rolled a nine to bump Padilla from the podium and win "The Battle". Great prizes were awarded including chaps from Woods Western World, hat certificates and a custom hat box from Shorty's Caboy Hattery, a custom show pad from Equine Oasis as well as a headstall, reins, skid boot and other items plus 5 gift certificates for $500 each toward a saddle purchase.

The 'Battle for the Saddle' was open to all exhibitors. It was open level 4 riders against green as grass riders. The fun part was that all contestants had to return to the arena after the last competitor finished their pattern to roll a set of dice. The number rolled was then added to the competitor's score for a total to determine the winner.

The possibility of rolling anything from snake eyes (2 points) to a 12, made this class a nail biter until the bitter or happy end (depending on your roll).

Exhibitors and spectator came together for a very exciting evening with snacks catered by the Rolling Hills Casino.

The lucky winner with a score of 74 on Lavonne Sturgeon's horse, California Shines, and a roll of 9 additional points for a total of 83 was Kain Emmons. Kain and Lavonne will now be sharing a beautiful saddle donated by the Rolling Hills Casino and WCRHA made by Scottsdale Performance Horses / Scottsdale Western World.

Second place went to Debi Murnan and her great mare Jacs Red Pine with a score of 80.

Third place with a 79 was awarded to Martin Padilla riding Spooks Dunit for owner Anna Marie Brown.

Fourth went to Kain Emmons riding Tereasa Canada's horse EZ on the Slide with a 78.5.

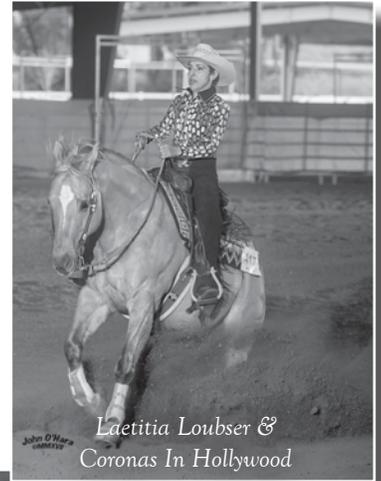

Fifth was a 3-way split between Megan Lynch, Ollie James Galligan and Martin Padilla.

Great prizes were awarded including chaps from Woods' Western World, hat certificates and a custom hat box from Shorty's Caboy Hattery, a custom show pad from Equine Oasis as well as a headstall, reins, skid boot and other items plus 5 gift certificates for $500 each toward a saddle purchase.

In the end, all exhibitors received awards due to our very generous sponsors: Rolling Hills Casino, Woods Western Wear, Equine Oasis and Shorty's Caboy Hattery

On behalf of all exhibitors and members we very much appreciate all that our Sponsors do for us to have these fun events. WCRHA would also like to thank Terry Skevington, Manager of Rolling Hills Equestrian Center for the great hospitality during this event and for the entire weekend.

Rein for the Roses

What a change from last year. Do you remember the rain, rain, rain in May 2016? 2017 Rein For The Roses started with close to record breaking warm temperatures for May. Our members and horses started prepping and showing in 90 degree temperature. However in the classic Brookside micro climate the days cooled off and we were back to lovely cool days. Bill Madden proprietor of Brookside Show Park greeted us with new sand footing in the warm up arena. This warm up arena is a one of a kind warm up venue for Reiners in Northern California. It brings us back to Brookside every year. Bill always does his best to provide the best warm up and show conditions possible. The Sugar Shack is also new at Brookside. What a welcome treat right in the center of the action, providing all sorts of espresso concoctions.

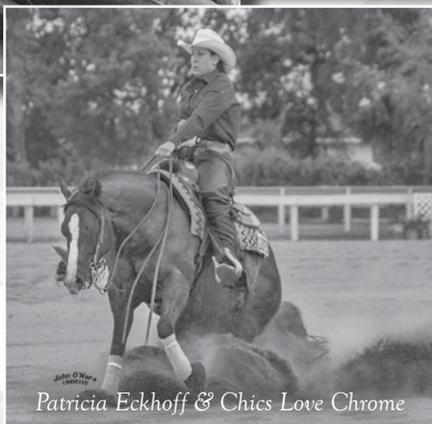

Rein For The Roses showcases Brookside Derby and Maturity Classes. The Open Maturity on Friday Night Champion was Martin Padilla showing I'm Magnificent owned by Hanna Hopper. The Friday Non Pro Derby Level 4 Champion was Sandy Bentien on her home grown Gotta Twist It up. Level 1 Champion was Jim Grech showing Shining Boon Chick. Saturday Night brought us the exciting Non-Pro Maturity Champion Jennifer Gilliam showing Hick A Shine and Reserve Champion Hanna Hopper showing I'M Magnificent. The Open Derby Champion was Mike McEntire showing Gunrise owned by Stanley Coats.

Mike Boyle on Holly Rowdy Whiz was the Reserve Champion showing for J& T Enterprises. Open Derby Level 1 Champion was Maximum Dream shown by Liz Rammerstorfer for owner Debbie Witt.

All of our NRHA Ancillary Classes have their own battles and successes but I want to high light a few.

The Rookie Classes were dominated by Patrica Eckhoff showing Chics Love Chrome and Reserve Champion Laetitia Loubser showing Corona In Hollywood. We increased our Short Stirrup Class to THREE Riders. Our Champion was Evia Reid showing Taris Topsail owned by Barbara Morland. Naudia Gilliam showing Hick A Shine and Casey Skadden showing Shine Like Cash were Co-Reserve Champions.

After a lot of consistent work and perseverance Derek Brummett was the Champion across the board showing Thischicsamistress in Intermediate Non-Pro, Limited Non-Pro, Prime Time Non-Pro and Co-Champion in Non-Pro. Way to go Derek and Mistress!!! Rhonda Dunlap was Reserve Champion Intermediate Non-Pro, Limited Non-Pro and Prime Time Non-Pro. Jennifer Gilliam was the Co-Champion Non-Pro with Derek.

All of our West Coast Reining Horse Members have so many stories to tell. Please share them with me and I will highlight them in the next newsletter. I'm looking forward to sharing the highlights of Reining Boot Camp on May 19th, Secrets of Judging Seminar on May 28th and our Shoot Out Show at Rancho Murieta June 2nd through June 4th. So many opportunities!!!

Cheers to keeping up!!!
