Nearly 200 exhibitors recently beat the COVID-19 pandemic blues by competing in the successful, well-run third and fourth affiliate shows of the West Coast Reining Horse Association. With over 1,000 actual entries, it proved to be the largest show for the WCRHA in quite a few years. Five days of showing, from June 24th to the 28th, gave trainers, Non Pros, and youth plenty of opportunities to get "in the pen" under the watchful eyes of NRHA judges Kelly Sapp, from North Carolina, and Mark Turner, from Indiana. The double affiliate show was held at the beautiful facility of Murieta Equestrian Center in Rancho Murieta, California. The Third Affiliate started the week off, with a full slate of classes going through mid-Friday,

Wow! It was a huge turnout for Affiliates #3 & #4 with more entries than anyone can remember! Enthusiastic reiners and big classes made for long and busy days which is what you want in a successful show! It was great to have so many new people showing and of course seeing friends that we have missed the past few months. The WCRHA Board appreciates everyone's cooperation and help in keeping the show running smoothly considering the circumstances we now live under and the large number of runs each day.

Since many affiliate shows across the United States and Canada have been cancelled, NRHA has eliminated the qualifying process for the Affiliate Regional Championship (ARC) for 2020 so that anyone can enter any ARC class they are eligible for at the Northwest ARC in Nampa, Idaho in October.

This means any member of WCRHA can travel to Idaho and enter the ARC classes they are eligible for and if you get a score above a zero you qualify to go to Oklahoma City for the North American Affiliate Championships (NAAC)! This is the year to "go for it" and show in Oklahoma City!!

The WCRHA Board of Directors voted to name the Rookie Professional class at all of our shows the "Becky Hanson" Rookie Professional Class in honor of Becky who won the NRHA Rookie Professional World Championship in 2006 and was a beloved member of WCRHA.

Every day I walk by my Becky Hanson photo art adorning the walls of my home and I am reminded of her. You are missed Becky...

at which time the Fourth Affiliate show, with duplicate classes, in a different order, began.

The Equestrian Center and WCRHA directors put in place COVID-19 health restrictions from allowing only exhibitors, trainers, owners, and essential personnel on the show grounds to encouraging the wearing of masks and social distancing. The viewing stands were off limits for spectators, and there were designated entrance and exit gates into the show pen and the warm-up pen.

One horse in particular slid and spun his way to multiple wins for his trainer as well as his Non Pro owner. NRHA Professional, Liz Rammerstorfer, and Like Madd won the Championships in all three levels of the first set of Novice Horse Open classes with a score of 71.5. Not to be outdone, his owner, Kelly Staley, showed him in several classes during the five days and placed first, second, or third in all classes entered in addition to winning the Rookie 2 and Prime Time Rookie with a whopping 72.5! Like Madd is a seven-year old gelding by Maddox and out of Peppys Chexy Diva. He was bred, raised, and trained by Christian and Liz Rammerstorfer. Kelly has owned "Colin," as he is known, for two years and really appreciates his efforts to please his riders; she says he has a lot of try. Kelly gives all credit for her successes to her trainer, stating, "Liz is an amazing teacher both to the horse and rider." Kelly is Superintendent of the Chico Unified School District when she's not showing Colin. Congrats, Kelly!

Excelling in the Youth classes was Lauren Hanson showing Xtra Dream Step, owned by her dad, David Hanson. Lauren scored 70s and 71s to win firsts and seconds in the four Youth classes that she entered. She also did well in the Non Pro classes. Xtra Dream Step is an eight-year old gelding by Magnum Chic Dream. Lauren serves as one of the Youth Delegates for WCRHA. She will be heading to Texas A & M in the Fall of 2021. Great riding, Lauren!

David Hanson started the Affiliate #3 show off with a high scoring run of 73 on Smart Little Dunnit, owned by Lisa Dentoni. Chics Dream, ridden by Mike Boyle and owned by Betty McHugh, was Reserve Champion with a score of 72. Jason Richards piloted Shining Boon Chick, owned by Ashley Palmer, to the Championship of the Intermediate Open class with a 72. Liz Rammerstorfer, on Cady Shaw's pretty grey mare, Xtra Playful Step, shared the Reserve Championship with Gabe Davide showing Mister Smartypants for owners Gordon and Eileen Maxinoski, both with scores of 71. Xtra Playful Step and Mister Smartypants also shared the Championship honors of the Limited Open class. In the Prime Time Open class, Mike Boyle and Chics Dream were Champions and Cam Essick on her own Loveya were Reserve Champions with a 70. Finishing off the set of Open classes was the Rookie Professional class. Coming out on top was Robyn Burton and Bayshine with a 70.5. Bayshine is owned by Nancy Hersh. Reserve was Tivitos Top Starlet, shown and owned by Jan Humphrey. With 75 entrants in all the Open classes, congratulations are to be extended to all!

Braving the mid-afternoon, toasty June temperatures of the Sacramento area were the Rookie reiners.

Twenty-eight hopefuls rode in the Rookie I. Coming out on top of both Rookie 1 and Rookie 2, with a score of 70.5, was Mackenzie McDowell and her own Rio Killer Gun. Reserve honors in Rookie 1 went to Cindy Laver and her Revolutionic with 69. Reserve in Rookie 2 was Like Madd and Kelly Staley with a 70 score. Kelly and Like Madd also won the Prime Time Rookie with Lara Prindiville and her

Jason Brixey

Step Like A Star close behind with a 69.5. Cindy and Revolutionary also won the WCRHA Green class. Brianna Madill and Spook Dunit were a close second with 68.5.

Finishing the day were twenty-four Snaffle Bit/Hackamore entries. Jason Richards was Champion with Fine Whiskey owned by Kimbal Griffith earning a 70.5 from the judges. With scores of 70, a three-way split for Reserve awards went to Brooke Boyle showing her dad's Hollywood Joe Cash, Eric Laporte showing Michell Kimball's Sugar Baby, and Eric also showing Brian Nicolaides' Magnum Rowdy Dream.

Day Two began in the cool of the morning with nineteen eager riders in their first or second year of showing reiners, the WCRHA Green as Grass class. Continuing with a strong showing of the day before was Brianna Madill and her Spook Dunit. The horse/rider combo scored a 70.5 to win the class! Jodie Brixey rode her Tangy Chex to a commendable score of 69.5 to take the Reserve. Good job to all the Green as Grass exhibitors!

Mid-morning saw the start of sixty-four runs in the very competitive Non Pro classes. Jim Grech guided his four-year old Sparkle Whiz A Banjo to Co-Championships with Julie Ridgeway on Gunnaout Shine Ya, owned by Rolling Hills Ranch LLC, in the Non Pro and Intermediate Non Pro as well as to the Co-Reserve title in the Prime Time Non Pro classes. They were awarded with scores of 71.5 for those runs. Mister Big Gun, owned and shown by Danica Caravetta, Chics Love Chrome, owned and shown by Patricia Fenner, and Gunnachicya, owned and shown by Abby Chavez all earned 70s to share the Championship of the Limited Non Pro class, featuring 29 entries. Lara Prindiville was the Champion of the Prime Time Non Pro class with a score of 72. For riders aged 60 and over, the Masters Non Pro at WCRHA shows continue to get bigger every year. Nineteen, very competitive entries showed in this class. Jim Grech with his Sparkle Whiz A Banjo came out on top with his 71.5. Close behind, with scores of 71, were three reiners who tied for the Reserve: Cady Shaw with Xtra Playful Step, Debi Murnan with Jacs Red Pine, and Kathleen Cook with Chics Double Magnum.

The next two concurrent classes featured twenty-eight runs by the green reiners. Champion of the NRHA

Kathleen Cook

Taylor Banks

Green Reiner Level 1 was Isabelle Ord showing Gunna Get Tippy to a 70.5 score. Cortney Allen and Starlights Lil Belle were awarded a 70 for their efforts to garner the Reserve. With her score of 70, Cortney also shared Championship rights of the NRHA Green Reiner 2 class with Taylor Banks and Julia Fry. Taylor showed AR Oakies Last Stand owned by Kristie Banks, and Julie showed Iz A Whiz owned by her dad, Bruce Fry.

Ending the day were twenty-three goes in the Novice Horse Open, Levels 1, 2, and 3. A score of 71.5 by Like Madd, piloted by Liz Rammerstorfer, captured the Championships of all three classes! With scores of 70, the Reserve in Level 1 was split between Jan Humphrey, riding her Tivitos Top Starlet, and Jordan Larson showing My Lucky Jersey, owned by Disa Cameron-Miller. In the Level 2, Liz showed Cady Shaw's Xtra Playful Step to a 69.5 to be Co-Reserve Champion with Gabe Davide showing Mister Smartypants, owned by Eileen Maxinoski. Jordan Larson reined Gunna Outshine Ya, owned by Virginia Langley, to the Reserve in Level 3 with a 71 score.

Day Three found a large amount of entries in all three levels of the Novice Horse Non Pro. Co-Champions of Level 1 were Laura Pierce riding her Sugar For Big Chex and Tiffany Peterson riding her own Magnasail, both with scores of 70. Jennifer Gilliam won both Level 2 and Level 3 on Janiene Borrer's Magnatize with a score of 72. Reserve in the Level 2 went to Vicki Dias and her ARC Dun With Ya with a 71.5. Sharing Reserve in Level 3, with 18 entries, was Derek Brummett on Thischicsamistress, owned by himself and his wife, Kelli, and Brooke Boyle showing Sunset Nite, owned by her dad, Mike Boyle.

Next in the pen were the Youth. Nearly 30 young equestrians rode hard to show off their skills for the judges! In the 10 and under Short Stirrup class, Kaydee Brixey rose to the first placing with a 70 aboard Tangy Chex, owned by Jodie Brixey. Reserve in the class of three was Naudia Gilliam on her mother's Suga Suga. In the 13 and Under class, Montana Berlin, riding her West Coast Hick, earned a 67.5 to best the class of six riders. Sharing second were Casey Skadden on Melanie Skadden's Lights In The Waves and Steven Allen, Jr. on his dad's Crome Topsail with scores of 66.5. Rachel Tillman laid down a high scoring run of 73 on Magnumatic, owned by Kelly Tillman, to win the Youth 14-18, Youth Rookie, and Unrestricted Youth classes. Lauren Hanson showed Xtra Dream Step to second place wins in the Youth 14-18 and Unrestricted Youth classes with a 71. Second place in the Youth Rookie was Jenevieve Welker on Spookebility with a 70. Congratulations to all the youth who were showing their horses!

After two and a half days of showing in the Affiliate #3 classes, the Affiliate #4 slate of classes began with the second WCRHA Green as Grass class of the week. Ashley Palmer topped the class of twenty riders earning a 71 with her Shining Boon Chick. Karley Fuller slid into second place with a 70 on her Hollywoodshiner.

The second slate of Open classes followed. David Hanson proved too hard to beat as he scored yet another 73 on Lisa Dentoni's Smart Little Dunit to win the Open class for the second time in the week. Mike Boyle on Betty McHugh's Chics Dream and Jordan Larson on Dias Cameron-Miller's My Lucky Jersey were Co-Reserve Champs with scores of 72.5. Jesus Chavez rode New Wimp In Town, owned by Grace Angelos, to the Championship of the second Intermediate Open class with a 71.5. Jason Richards and Shining Boon Chick and Liz Rammerstorfer and Xtra Playful Step were Co-Reserve Champions with 71s. With scores of 71, the Limited Open Champions were Gabe Davide and Richard Boer's Dreamin About Wimpy and Liz Rammerstorfer with Cady Shaw's Xtra Playful Step. In the Prime Time Open, Mike Boyle and Cam Essick were the Champion and Reserve Champion, respectively, for the second time in the week, Mike on Chics Dream and Cam, with a 72, on Loveya. Likewise, once again, Robyn Burton and Jan Humphrey were Champion and Reserve Champion in the Rookie Professional class, with Robyn scoring a 70 on Nancy Hersh's Bayshine and Jan showing her own Tivitos Top Starlet to a 68.5. Congrats to all Open riders!

More than 45 entrants showed up nice and early on Day Four for the three Novice Horse Open classes! Gabe Davide and Mister Smartypants, owned by Eileen Maxinoski, laid down a score of 72.5 early in the draw that proved difficult to beat. The score held through the more than four hours of runs, and the duo was able to claim all three Championships in the end. Close behind in the Level 1 with a 72 was Kelly Keenan aboard Smart Smokin Mobster, owned by Craig Stonesifer II. Reserve in Level 2 was split four ways between Kelly and Smart Smokin Mobster, Martin Padilla on Jennifer Fisher's Midnite Whiskey Run, Jason Richards on Ann Jeppesen's Shine Kitty Shine, and Jordan Larson on Maria Livertt's Mobsters Tears, all with scores of 72. There was a three-way tie for Reserve in the Level 3 class: Kelly and Smart Smokin Mobster, Jordan and Mobsters Tears, and Jesus Chavez on Grace Angelos' New Wimp In Town.

Late morning saw more than fifty riders getting ready for their Rookie classes. Taylor Banks enjoyed the victory of winning the Championship of Rookie 1 with a 71 on Rickybakinhollywood as well as the Co-Reserve with AR Oakies Last Stand, both horses owned by Kristie Banks. Sharing the Co-Reserve Championship with Taylor was Jenevieve Welker on her Spookebilty with 70.5. Kelly Staley laid down a stellar run of 72.5 on her Like Madd to win the Rookie 2 and Prime Time Rookie. Taylor, with Rickybacinhollywood, and Lauri Moore on her Mr Twister Whiz tied for second in Rookie 2 with 71s. Lauri was also the Reserve Champion in the Prime Time Rookie. Cindy Laver and Revolutionic won the second WCRHA Green class. Coming in with her second Reserve in this class was Brianna Madill on Spook Dunit. This time, Brianna shared the Reserve with Sarah Cobb on her Never Forget Spooks.

Casey Skadden

The heat of the afternoon welcomed more than forty Non Pro riders to ride on into the early evening. Kathleen Cook, riding Chics Double Magnum, and Lisa Dentoni, riding Smart Little Dunnit, were Champion and Reserve Champion, respectively, in the Non Pro, Intermediate Non Pro, and Prime Time Non Pro classes, Kathleen scoring a 72 and Lisa scoring a 71.5. Lisa was also Champion of the Limited Non Pro, and Kathleen was Champion of the Masters. Earning a Reserve in the Limited Non Pro was Abby Chavez on Gunnachicya with a 71. Reserve in the Masters was Cady Shaw on Xtra Playful Step with a 71.

Four days of showing did not hamper the eagerness of the 32 entrants in the NRHA Green Reiner classes as they started Day Five off with a vengeance! The Championship of Level 1 had to be split four ways! Paolo Troia on his own Hollywood Voodoo, Diane Nelson on her Its All On The Line, Stephanie Munzinger on her Aces High Whiz, and Camille MacDermott on Gentleman Whiz, owned by Debbie Valdero-Tweedy and Stacey Cook, all earned scores of 69s to share in the honor of being Champion of the Level 1 class. Lauren Grippi was awarded a score of 69.5 which rewarded her with the win of the Level 2. Coming in second to Lauren were Paolo Troia, Stephanie Munzinger, and Cindy Laver on her Revolutionic.

Kelly Staley and her Like Madd continued with their week of wins by claiming the Championship of the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 with a score of 71.5. Coming in second with 70.5 was Stacy Hamilton on her Whizzen the Dream. Jennifer Gilliam was again Champion of the Level 2 and 3 with Janiene Borrer's Magnatize besting their previous score by a half point to 72.5. Kelly and Like Madd were Reserve in Level 2. There was a two-way tie for Reserve in Level 3 with Debi Murnan on Jacs Red Pine and Cady Shaw on Xtra Playful Step as both scored 71.

Sarah Bothun

The Youth were next in the pen, all 28 of them! Co-Champions of the Youth 13 and Under were Brooke Banks on Roosters Who, owned by Kristie Banks, and Naudia Gilliam on Suga Suga, owned by Jennifer Gilliam. The girls scored 68.5. With a score of 70, Lauren Hanson was awarded the Championships in the Youth 14-18 and the Unrestricted Youth classes. Julia Fry on her dad's Iz A Whiz and Jenevieve Welker on her own Spookebilty were Co-Reserve winners in the Youth 14-18 with 69.5. Jenevieve also won the Youth Rookie class with Brooke Banks on Roosters Who coming in second. Julia Fry was Reserve in the Unrestricted Youth class. The Short Stirrup 10 and Under class was won by Naudia Gilliam on Suga Suga with a score of 69.5. Reserve went to Bayley Fuller riding Hold Em N Fold Em with a 67. Great job of showing by the West Coast Youth!

Vernon Ed Cummins

Fifteen entries rounded up the last day of the Affiliate #4 in the Snaffle Bit/Hackamore class. Throwing down a hefty 72.5 to win the class was Martin Padilla riding Gunners Custom Rose, owned by Adan Martinez. Reserve honors went to Jason Richards with a 72 riding Caitie Moulding's PS Ice Queen.

Full classes and extended days kept everyone happy and busy at the Affiliate #3 and #4 shows put on by the West Coast Reining Horse Association. Much gratitude is given to the Directors and the Murieta Equestrian Center for going ahead with the show, especially after having to cancel their Affiliate #2 show due to COVID-19 restrictions back in May. Thank you also to the many sponsors who have the faith in the reining horse industry to assist in keeping the shows moving forward. The Northern California/Nevada reiners are optimistically looking forward to the next WCRHA show, the Year End Show at Murieta Equestrian Center on August 20-23. Hope to see you there!

Whiz Ms Dolly adopts Orphaned Clydesdale

WCRHA members are always the most helpful as exemplified by Britta Jacobson from Santa Rosa. When Britta's reining mare, Whiz Ms Dolly lost her filly last spring, Britta put the word out that she had a nurse mare available. She got a response 140 miles away of a Clydesdale colt that was orphaned. The 14.1 hand Quarter Horse mare could have cared less that her "new" baby was just about as tall as she was! The article and photographs about this unlikely duo were published in several horseman publications throughout the country (Google orphaned clydesdale). Thank you, Britta, for your good deed!

ROUND-UP EVENT

in a digital frame from David Hanson*

Congratulations to Sue Barton for winning the Round Up drawing held at the recent show. Sue won 100 Becky Hanson photos with digital frame that were donated by David Hanson.

For those exhibitors who "rounded up" their show bill to the nearest $100, a raffle ticket was given for a drawing held Saturday afternoon. The Round Up was a fundraising activity for WCRHA.

Thank you to all who "rounded up!"

WCRHA Youth NEWS

Lauren Hanson

Carson Devine

Your 2020 Youth Delegates here to report! Lauren Hanson and Carson Devine have taken over the reins for the year. We have high goals and even higher expectations for this season as the youth make their return to the pen! The competition is high with the race for the saddles down to one final show! Without being able to fundraise this year we were in need of sponsors for our saddles...and lucky for us we received a sponsorship for both our 13 & Under and 14-18 Year End saddles! A HUGE thank you goes out Grocery Outlet for their generosity and support of our youth yet again! Because we aren't able to fundraise this year neither of these saddles would have been possible without the help of Grocery Outlet!

Horses make us better.
Together, we make them better, too.

Campbell McLeod Wins Art & Photo Contest

Congratulations are in store to Campbell McLeod for her entries in the NRHYA Art & Photo Contest sponsored by the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum. Her depiction of a bay horse head won first place in the Graphic Artwork, ages 14-18, section. She drew the horse head free hand with a digital pencil and used color and shading to make it look like a painting. All first place art pieces were displayed in the Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Congratulations, Campbell!

The advertisement features a black and white photograph of a horse running, with motion lines trailing behind its legs. In the top left, the text "OSPHEOS" is in a large, bold, sans-serif font, with "(clodronate injection)" in a smaller font below it. In the top right is the Dechra Veterinary Products logo, which consists of a stylized 'D' shape above the word "Dechra" and "Veterinary Products" below it. In the bottom left, the text "The intramuscular bisphosphonate injection" is in a bold, sans-serif font, followed by "from Dechra Veterinary Products" in a smaller font. In the bottom right, there is a box of OSPHEOS, a vial, and a syringe. The box and vial both have the Dechra logo and product name. The syringe is a large, clear plastic syringe with a needle attached. At the bottom center, the phone number "866-933-2472" is displayed, followed by the text "For full prescribing information, visit www.dechra-us.com."

RECIPE

Two more yummy recipes from WCRHA's own Cowboy Cook, Jason Richards! Jason is a trainer at Boyle Ranch and can be seen showing multiple horses at any number of reining shows throughout the year. He can also be seen on Facebook most Sunday evenings as he prepares sumptuous meals and discusses reiner issues with his guests. Tune in and learn to cook like the cowboys cook!

Jason Richards Beef Brisket with Cowboy Beans

Cowboy Beans:

Ingredients

- 10-oz. can of baked beans
- 10-oz. can of pork n bean
- 10-oz. can Nallys chili, no beans
- 1/2 cup brown mustard
- 1/2 pound cooked hamburger
- 1/2 pound cooked bacon
- 1 Tbsp. mustard seed

Directions

1. Mix together first three ingredients.
2. Add brown mustard, hamburger, bacon, and mustard seed.
3. Cover and cook on 375 for 40 minutes.

Beef Brisket:

Season with salt and pepper. Wrap in foil. Cook in the oven at 350 degrees. Cook one hour for every pound.

Enjoy!
